

OUR STORY

Chestnut is a growing collection of pubs with rooms in the East of England with their own unique character.

The abundance of local produce, 500 miles of coastline and varied local history and culture provide an incredible backdrop for both our guests and our team.

Our people are the heart of Chestnut. It is their passion and relentless pride for the region – its people, provenance and personality, that feeds our ambition to be the best we can.

SUSTAINABLE STARS

We are very aware of the effects of climate change, and are committed to working with like-minded and local suppliers. We have planted trees with our friends at Sapling and walked fields with farmers in Norfolk, growing barley for the brewing team at Adnams - helping our people understand the work our partners are doing to support the environment.

Sapling - Producer of vodka and gin tackling climate change through reforestation , planting a tree for every bottle we buy!

Maker's Mark - Their distillery has received B-corp status and is championing social and environmental initiatives across the company and industry.

Torres - All organic vineyards, committed to investing 11% of annual profits into combatting climate change.

Adnams - Southwold based brewery playing an active role in the local community with the Adnam's Community Trust and regular beach cleans while operating using a 100% certified renewable electricity supply.

Fever Tree - Carbon neutral operations in the UK with fully recyclable packaging.

Edmunds - Founded in Bury St Edmunds, enjoy climate positive cocktails that support reforestation projects.

Everleaf - Non-alcoholic, vegan, gluten free and founded by a conservation biologist.

Sipsmith - Their distillery has received B-corp status and is championing social and environmental initiatives across the company and industry.

Seachange - Each bottle sold helps support ocean conservation projects.
